

ACADEMIC RESPONSIBILITY

Purpose:

A strong academic community thrives on honesty, fairness and respect for intellectual property. This policy outlines the expectations for students regarding academic integrity and responsible conduct at Bucknell.

Scope:

This policy applies to all currently enrolled students.

Policy:

Bucknell University students are responsible for the preparation and presentation of work representing their own efforts. Acceptance of this responsibility is essential to the educational process and must be considered as an expression of mutual trust, the foundation upon which creative scholarship rests. Students are directed to use great care when preparing all written work and to acknowledge fully the source of all ideas and language other than their own.

In cases of alleged academic dishonesty, procedures involving the student, the instructor, the department chair, the appropriate dean and a Board of Review on Academic Responsibility have been established to assess the facts and determine appropriate penalties, which range from a grade of F on the work to permanent dismissal from the University. Refer to the Board of Review website for more detailed information.
