

INTERNATIONAL BACCALAUREATE (IB) & CAMBRIDGE INTERNATIONAL A LEVEL CREDIT

Purpose:

This policy outlines Bucknell's guidelines for awarding credit and/or placement based on scores achieved in International Baccalaureate Diploma Programme exams and Cambridge International A Level examinations.

Scope:

This policy applies to all currently enrolled students.

Definitions:

"IB Diploma" means a diploma from an International Baccalaureate Diploma Programme

"IB Certificate" means a non-diploma certificate from an International Baccalaureate Diploma Programme

"CI" means Cambridge International A Level

Policy:

IB Diploma recipients with a minimum score of 5 on each of the six subject examinations will be awarded six course credits toward their degree requirements at Bucknell. IB Diploma recipients not meeting the minimum score requirements will receive course credit for only those higher level courses passed with a score of 5 or higher. IB Certificate students will receive course credit for each higher level course passed with an examination score of 5 or higher. No credit is awarded for standard level courses except as noted for IB Diploma recipients above.

CI credit requires a minimum grade of "C" and the approval of the appropriate academic department associated with the subject completed.
